Camie-Campbell Names Doder President and CFO
Former COO and CFO has been with company for 20 years

ST. LOUIS (June 2008) — Camie-Campbell, an industry leader in the manufacturing of adhesives, lubricants and sealants, announces the promotion of Vince Doder to the role of President. He will also maintain his previous position as CFO. Doder, who has nearly 20 years of experience with the company, assumes the role after previously serving as COO and CFO.

“Vince has done great things during his stay at Camie-Campbell,” said Tom Shelby, CEO of Camie-Campbell. “He has shown unparalleled dedication to his work. He has been a long-standing asset to our team, and we are lucky to have him.”

In his new role at Camie-Campbell, Doder will oversee the operations and staff, as well as structure the company’s finances and annual budget. He will also manage the company’s marketing and advertising strategies, helping to maintain the Camie-Campbell, Shelby and Tom’s Secret Formula brands of adhesives, lubricants and sealants.

Prior to joining Camie-Campbell, Doder worked in accounting for a global financial advising firm and has experience in accounting with a major department store.

Doder graduated from St. Louis University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and an emphasis in accounting. He is also a Certified Public Accountant.
